Must be paid in full 30 days prior to show date

- Check in starts at 1 pm on the Friday before the show at the front of Building D. Please check in Before you start unloading your items. (If you have a trailer, please put on application)
- Set up is Friday 1 pm-10 pm and Saturday morning 7 am- 9 am.
- If you will ONLY be checking in on Saturday morning, please let us know prior to the show so we do not give your booth away.
- After unloading, please move your vehicles away from the door so others can unload.
- ALL canopies, displays, tables and chairs must all stay within your allotted area.
- Electricity is available for a fee. Tag your extension cord with your receipt.
- Tables and chairs are free but limited to 1 per booth. They will be available at the front of the building and will no longer be set up for you. This is based on first come first serve.
- Please do not sell outside of your booth area. This includes handing out fliers and samples.
- You are responsible for having all permits and licenses needed to sell in Texas.
- Please do not pack up before the show ends. It is RUDE and makes us all look bad.
- Briar Patch nor its staff or employees are responsible for theft or damage to your products.
- Briar Patch has my permission to use my business name, info and any photos acquired at the show for advertising purposes.
- We already have our dates for upcoming shows. If you would like to return and stay in the same spot, you must submit your application along with fees to the info booth in your building by the close of the current show. Applications will not be accepted without a fee or deposit. Payment arrangements must be approved by Diana.
- Trailers are welcome but need to rent enough space to cover tongue to tail gate down.
- By signing the application, you agree to the above terms.
